DESCRIPTION

This 513+ acre parcel in Lakeville, Connecticut is the largest undeveloped agricultural parcel currently available in Litchfield County. This secluded farmland is for the most part southwest sloping with large rolling corn fields, meadowlands, a pond, brooks and is ringed with high wooded elevations. There are long bucolic views from most locations of the farm. A ninety acre portion of the farm is the subject to an agricultural easement limiting its development. Web ID# JHA203
